(f) MCBO 1700.1

1. Purpose. To outline Base policy regarding nonmilitary youth group (NYG) camping activities at MCB, Quantico.

2. Information

a. This Order defines policy on all aspects of NYG camping activities while aboard the Base.

b. NYG access to and utilization of Base property and facilities is predicated on the following four principles, per references (a) and (b):

(1) Noninterference with Marine Corps operational and training requirements.

(2) Avoidance of hazardous areas and equipment (e.g., all obstacle and confidence courses).

(3) Avoidance of hazardous activities, to include but not limited to, weapons training and combat-type activities such as tactics, marksmanship, and hand-to-hand combat.

(4) Reimbursement by NYG agencies for all support to include campgrounds provided by CG MCB.

3. Policy

a. NYG camping activities aboard the Base will be limited to the use of authorized campgrounds at Lunga Park on a noninterference basis, per references (a) through (f) and this Order.

MCBO 5760.2

29 Apr 96

b. NYG's will be self-sufficient in all aspects of camping to include transportation, medical, and communications per reference (d) and this Order.

c. NYG's may subsist at mess facilities in conjunction with camping activities per reference (e) and this Order.

4. Action

a. Director, Morale, Welfare, and Recreation Division. Serve as the focal point for approving/disapproving authority for NYG camping activities at Lunga Park.

b. Director, Operations Division. Serve as the Base focal point for coordinating access to Base dining facilities for NYG camping at Lunga Park and any other services requested that are not covered herein.

c. Orsanizational Heads. Provide required support.
